

Convention Year Roomshare Agreement

Check In      Month Day at Time                      Nights      Day and Day
Check Out    Month Day at Time                      Cost        $??? via cash/paypal
(Late checkout is not available)

Definitions

“You” is the person sharing the room with “Me”, the room holder. Both parties to are identified in the signature section.
“Guest” refers to anyone not party to this agreement.

Payment and Dealings with the Hotel

Your share $??? must be paid in full and this agreement signed before receiving a room key or putting anything in the room. The room will be held in my name. If you have issues with the room or hotel, please try to contact me before contacting the hotel.

Accommodations

You will get a sleeping spot on a bed or sofa and a modest amount of floor space for storage in my hotel room.

Rules for the Room

1. No activities that violate the hotel's policies or US law. This means no drugs, smoking, underage drinking, or starting bonfires on the balcony.
2. Nudism is frowned on. At a minimum wear undergarments unless in the bathroom.
3. Sex anywhere in the room is prohibited. I know it's fun but it's not happening here.
4. A shower or bath, alone, at least once every 24 hours is both recommended and required.
5. No charges to the hotel room. If you want to order room service, please use your credit card, not mine.
6. Please respect other people's belongings and space. Assume you need to ask to use anything not yours, even if it's out in the open.
7. Your room key shouldn't be given to anyone that isn't staying in the room.
8. Any room parties or overnight guests in the room need to be cleared by me.
9. No pets, perfumes, or scented aerosol sprays in the room. (Sorry, I'm allergic to a lot of things)

Quiet Hours

Quiet hours in the room are from ??am to ??am. During quiet hours, no guests, loud noises, or activities that would bother anyone sleeping are allowed. If you're not sleeping during quiet hours, it's probably best to be elsewhere.

Guest Policy

If you bring a guest in the room do not leave them unattended. Guests are not allowed in the room during Quiet Hours.

Alcohol Policy

Alcohol is allowed in the room and anyone 21 or older is welcome to indulge in moderation. Anyone I don't know will be ID checked. Binge drinking, drinking games, or getting drunk and belligerent is grounds for being removed from the room.

Refund Policy

There are no refunds for missed nights in the room. If you need to leave the convention early, talk to me. I will most likely give you refund for future nights you won't be using.

If I offer a refund, I will do my best to provide it within 2 weeks of my returning from the convention if not immediately.

Paypal payments will not be refunded in cash.

The granting of any refund, if applicable, is at my sole discretion.

Signature

By signing this you agree to pay a non-refundable amount of $??? for the room and abide by this agreement.
